Sec. 10 Attendance at Retirement Planning or Similar Seminars

Background

From time to time various organizations offer retirement planning sessions, most members in their last ten years of working life are interested in attending. Our policy has been relatively loose in past years where the Executive or President decided on those to attend. In particular, we have tried to make arrangements for those retiring in the current year. The purpose of this policy is to layout general guidelines to the Executive or member responsible to assist them in determining who should attend.

1. Members will be notified that retirement planning advice is available from time to time and will be advised that they should consider attending at least one of the sessions at least five years before retirement. Members aged forty (40) and over are eligible to attend per #2 below. Amended November 16, 2011
2. The Executive or member assigned will determine those to attend at the Union's cost on the following basis:
  - a) those applying to go will be chosen in the reverse order according to their retirement date, i.e. those closest to retirement go first.
  - b) if chosen to attend at Union cost, the member would be expected to pay their own transportation and food costs.
  - c) a member will be sent to a retirement planning seminar at full cost to the Union once.
  - d) a member who wants to attend a second retirement planning seminar will only have the registration fee paid for them. Wages and other costs are the member's responsibilities.

Sec. 23      Protection of "Personal Information" and "Employee Personal Information"

Introduction

This policy applies to CUPE Local 454 (CUPE) and has been adopted pursuant to the Personal Information Protection Act - (BC) -

CUPE as a union is responsible under the Protection of Personal Information Act (BC) (PIPA) to protect what is defined in PIPA as "personal information" and "employee personal information".

Not all information about all individuals is affected by PIPA. Much of the information CUPE collects and uses about individuals is defined in PIPA as "work product information" about its members, collected and used by CUPE as a collective organization, for purposes connected to promoting the welfare of the group. This information is not subject to PIPA.

Other information collected and used by CUPE is subject to PIPA. That information includes personal information about its employees and non-member volunteers, as well as information about others in the community who are not CUPE members.

CUPE protects the information of its members by ensuring that it is not disclosed to nonmembers except as necessary to further the interests of the membership as a whole.

Members who are concerned about the disclosure of information about them are encouraged to raise those issues with CUPE officials, with final decisions to be made democratically according to CUPE's Constitution and Bylaws.

This policy is designed to cover what is defined in PIPA as "personal information" and "employee personal information", which is included in "personal information". Where applicable, the principles of privacy protection contained in this policy should also be followed with respect to member information as well as the information covered under PIPA. Members are encouraged to use the democratic processes of the union to ensure that privacy is appropriately protected within CUPE and by CUPE.

CUPE as an organization is responsible for the protection of "personal information" and the proper handling of it at all times, throughout CUPE and in dealings with outside parties. We recognize that our proper handling of "personal information" is both essential to the individuals concerned and to our reputation as a union.

CUPE LOCAL 454 ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY MANUAL

CUPE subscribes to the following principles for the protection of "personal information" and "employee personal information".

1. Accountability
2. Identifying
3. Consent
4. Limiting collection
5. Limiting use, disclosure, and retention
6. Accuracy
7. Safeguards
8. Openness
9. Individual access
10. Challenging compliance

1. Accountability

CUPE Local 454 has a Privacy Coordinator to look after the protection of information under PIPA. Individuals who are concerned about information CUPE possesses, and how it is stored, used and disclosed are encouraged to contact our Privacy Coordinator through the union office.

Our Privacy Coordinator is responsible for handling questions and requests for information from the public and our employees, as well as making recommendations to the Executive Board for the handling and protection of information. CUPE welcomes suggestions made to the Privacy Coordinator on how we can improve and maintain our protection of privacy.

The Privacy Coordinator will also work with other Privacy Coordinators and resource people within both CUPE BC and CUPE National to ensure that our privacy protection measures are appropriate and effective.

2. Identifying the purpose of collection, use and disclosure

Where PIPA requires it, CUPE will identify the reasons for collecting "personal information" or "employee personal information" before or at the time we collect it. As required, we will document those reasons and inform the individual from whom it is to be collected. Any further use of the information will be subject to a new consent where

PIPA requires it.

3. Obtaining consent for collection, use and disclosure

It is our policy to obtain consent for the collection, use and disclosure of "personal information" as required by PIPA. Before any "personal information" is handled by any member or employee of CUPE, they will receive instruction on the requirements to be met under the legislation by the Privacy Coordinator or another person designated by them.

4. Limiting collection

In general, it is our policy to avoid the unnecessary collection of information. Where "personal information" under PIPA is involved, or may be involved, we will require consultation with the Privacy Coordinator or reference to the written directions of the Privacy Coordinator.

5. Limiting use, disclosure and retention

"Personal information" should only be used for the purpose for which it was collected, and should not be retained after its purpose is finished according to PIPA. There are uses for which the purpose may only seem to be completed, however. Members and employees must refer to the Privacy Coordinator for direction before destruction of "personal information" pursuant to PIPA to ensure that destruction is appropriate. Instead of destruction, the information may sometimes be altered to remove identifying information if appropriate.

The Privacy Coordinator will coordinate regular reviews to ensure that "personal information" is not retained unnecessarily.

6. Maintaining accuracy

CUPE will take every reasonable step to ensure that information used in decision-making or disclosed to third parties is accurate and complete. Before making such decisions or disclosures, "personal information" must be checked.

7. Using appropriate safeguards

"Personal information" under PIPA must be protected from theft or unwarranted disclosure. All members and employees of CUPE will be advised of this requirement.

The Privacy Coordinator is responsible for ensuring that CUPE maintains adequate safeguards against theft or unauthorized access, use or disclosure. These measures will be reasonably strict depending on the sensitivity of the information involved and will be reviewed on a regular basis by the Privacy Coordinator.

8. Openness

CUPE will make all reasonable efforts to inform the public, its members and its employees of this policy and any subsequent policy with respect to "personal information" under PIPA. To that end, a copy of the current policy will be available on request at our offices.

It is our intention to protect "personal information" as defined in PIPA, and to be as open to suggestion, criticism, complaint and inquiry as we can. The Policy Coordinator will be responsible for dealing as quickly as possible with the public, members and employees who have concerns they wish to raise, and with the Privacy Commissioner under PIPA.

Complaints and requests under PIPA will be handled by the Privacy Coordinator, who will be happy to assist in drafting them.

9. Giving individuals access

Under PIPA, individuals have rights to access their "personal information", with some exceptions. Requests for access should be made to the Privacy Coordinator, who will respond to them as quickly and effectively as possible subject to PIPA's requirements.

If correction of the "personal information" is appropriate, the Privacy Coordinator will receive and act on a request for correction according to PIPA's requirements. If there is a disagreement about accuracy of the "personal information", PIPA requires CUPE to make a note of the requested correction attached to the document where the disputed information appears.

Fees may be charged under PIPA for access to "personal information", and may include the costs to CUPE of finding and copying such information. We will keep any such fees to a minimum, covering only our costs. Before doing the work, an estimate of any fees to be charged will be given.

10. Appeals

Any decision of the Privacy Coordinator may be appealed to the Executive Board or its delegate(s). CUPE will make every reasonable effort to resolve disputes without the need to involve the Privacy Commissioner under PIPA.

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY MANUAL

Sec. 24      Job Sharing

All job sharing requests must be initiated by interested members holding full time positions, through the Union office, not by the Employer.

The Local 454 Executive Board will consider each request on its own merits and develop a protocol for job share requests. Each job share request is subject to membership approval. Job sharing requests will be considered only on an accommodation basis: i.e. care of dependents. Nothing in this policy and/or any further letter of understanding shall be construed as altering the existing obligations of either party under the collective agreement. If accepted, the job sharing arrangement must recognize the Union's desire to maintain and preserve job positions; therefore, any arrangement will be based on CUPE BC's policy (see attached) and the following criteria:

1. Job sharing can be done for full-time positions and the (non-incumbent) job share position shall be immediately posted and filled. This will keep the process open.
2. The job sharing request is subject to Employer approval. A Letter of Understanding between the parties will be made for each accepted request.
3. If the request is approved by the Employer, there shall be no reduction in the number of full-time positions; and a posting for one incumbent's vacant position will occur immediately. The vacated position shall be posted temporary to definite.
4. There shall be a five year maximum time period to which each job sharing agreement shall be limited. The arrangement may be reviewed by the Union Executive semi-annually at which time the arrangement may be extended, amended or terminated.
5. The position shall be shared on a 50-50 basis, the position can be split in a manner agreeable to the two job-share partners, their supervisor and the Department Manager. The work schedule for the shared position shall remain the same as if the position were not shared.
6. The incumbents shall be entitled to all benefits as provided in the Collective Agreement to regular full-time employees, including E.I., Canada Pension and Superannuation, on a pro-rated basis. The salary base for pension calculations will continue to be the full-time salary of the position, if the Pension Plan allows this. Currently the pension amount shall be calculated on the actual amounts earned.
7. Participants will not be eligible to jointly apply for promotions to a higher-rated position.

CUPE LOCAL 454
ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY MANUAL

8. Should the incumbent abandon the arrangement, the position will revert to regular full-time and be filled by the posting process as per the Collective Agreement.
9. When the mutually agreed to job sharing term expires, the incumbents will be entitled to return to their regular full-time positions within the workplace.
10. Incremental pay levels will still be based as per Collective Agreement
11. All job share agreements will be non-precedent setting.

When any appeal regarding job share is to be brought forward to the membership, notification must be given to the Union membership in writing prior to the monthly meeting, as per local bylaws, and the notification must list the job title and job location.
